

F5 Adds Maya McReynolds and Julie Gonzalez to its Board of Directors

Oct 15, 2024 4:05 PM

SEATTLE--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- F5, Inc. (NASDAQ: FFIV) today announced the appointment of two new members to its board of directors: Maya McReynolds, 53, and Julie Gonzalez, 43. Both joined F5's board effective October 10, 2024 and will serve on the Audit Committee.

Ms. McReynolds currently serves as Chief Financial Officer, Client Solutions Group at Dell Technologies, Inc. where she is responsible for leading financial strategy for the more than $50 billion business. She is a seasoned finance and accounting executive with experience in global audit, treasury, and financial planning and analysis with extensive background in SEC reporting, and policy development. She brings more than 25 years of experience in accounting and finance, driving financial strategy, and managing large corporate transactions and business transformations while leading large global teams.

Ms. Gonzalez is currently Senior Vice President, Business Finance at Workday, Inc. where she leads the team responsible for forecasting and planning Workday's quarterly, annual, and long-term financial performance and for providing performance insights across the organization. She is an experienced finance executive with expertise in strategic and financial planning and analysis for large complex software organizations. She is a proven leader with more than 15 years' experience and a track record of driving financial success, implementing strategic initiatives, and fostering cross-functional collaboration.

"Maya and Julie bring a collective wealth of financial expertise and operational experience to the F5 board," said Alan Higginson, chairperson of the F5, Inc. Board of Directors. "Their respective first-hand experiences managing world-class, large-scale SaaS businesses and driving successful business transformations will be invaluable assets to our Board. As F5 embarks on its next phase of growth, extending our software and SaaS capabilities, their individual insights and strategic vision will play a pivotal role in guiding F5's continued success."

With these two appointments, F5's board expands to 12 members, 11 of whom are independent. F5's diverse board includes five directors who identify as female and four directors who identify as racially or ethnically diverse, with one identifying as African American or Black, one identifying as Asian, and two identifying as Hispanic or Latino(a).
